Don Dog is sent out of Al's butcher shop for eating up the bologna. He tries to join a foot-ball game, but the big mutts chase him away. However, with the aid of a skunk, Don gets the ball. A dog mixing cement gets the pigskin and fills it full of cement. A tough bull-dog stubs his toe on the loaded ball, heaves it at the cement-dog who ducks, letting the ball crash through Al's window.

Al chases all the dogs away, and as he is trying to get Don Dog, the gang return and raise havoc in Al's store.

Returning to the store, the farmer discovers the dogs at feast, calls up the police and with their help chases the pack of hounds over the hill.
